

Physician & Emergency Contact Information

Physician Information

List all of the physicians who provide your medical care for PD or any other condition. Include your primary care physician (family doctor), as well as any other specialists such as your neurologist, physical therapist, cardiologist, endocrinologist or gastroenterologist.

Primary Care Physician/Family Doctor Name: _____ Clinic or Hospital: _____ Phone: (_____) _____	Specialist: _____ Name: _____ Clinic or Hospital: _____ Phone: (_____) _____
Specialist: _____ Name: _____ Clinic or Hospital: _____ Phone: (_____) _____	Specialist: _____ Name: _____ Clinic or Hospital: _____ Phone: (_____) _____

Emergency Contact Information

Write down the name, address and phone number of someone that a doctor or nurse can contact in case you are hospitalized or have to go to the emergency room.

Name: _____
Address: _____
Phone: (_____) _____

Other emergency contacts

Name: _____	Phone: (_____) _____
Name: _____	Phone: (_____) _____
Name: _____	Phone: (_____) _____

Looking for more information on Parkinson's disease? Here are some great places to start.

Helpful phone numbers:

American Health Care Association (202) 842-4444	National Council on the Aging (202) 479-1200
Americans with Disabilities Act/Regional & Technical Assistance Centers (800) 949-4232	Elder Care Information & Referral Service (800) 677-1116

Informative websites:

Tips and advice for caregivers and patients www.parkinsonshealth.com	National Parkinson Foundation www.parkinson.org
American Parkinson Disease Association www.apdaparkinson.org	Worldwide Education and Awareness for Movement Disorders www.wemove.org
National Family Caregivers Association (NFCA) www.nfcacares.org	Information about AZILECT® www.azilect.com